

Notes from the Staff

Mikaiab: Hi, if you want faster releases of Dantalian no Sboka or Make a Wish, Daxi! then please join us as a translator! Translation is honestly the bottleneck for our releases, so if you could help us out, that'd be greatly appreciated! On another note, I've also picked up helping out the folks over at Outerworld Scans ("cough" I am one of those 'folks') with translating the series Raksbasa Street, also known as Zben Hun Jie. This means my current (slow) translation speed will be even slower from now on. Apologies. Couple that with me juggling college work... expect a chapter every two months or so.
